

Tracker dog D7N25 Janus was deployed to South Vietnam in 1967 with 3RAR where his handler was Pte Phil Moore.

Janus was an exceptional tracking dog and followed an enemy party for up to several kilometres after a ground assault at Fire Support Base Andersen on 17 February 1968, at which time his handler, Pte Phil Moore, was shot and wounded.

Janus later served with 9RAR 1968-1969; followed by 8RAR 1969-1970.

Janus was retired from 8RAR in 1970 when he was reportedly given to the Australian Embassy, Saigon.
